PART III

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

13.1. Direct appointees against permanent vacancies shall be on probation for a period of two years and promotees for a period of one year, provided that a person who is already confirmed in an identical or an equivalent scale of pay and is transferred for appointment in the service shall not be placed on probation.

13.2. Approved officiating service shall be included in the probation period but no member who is officiating in any appointment, shall be confirmed on the completion of the prescribed probationary period until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

13.3. If, in the opinion of the appointing authority the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is unsatisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him in his former post if he has been recruited otherwise than by direct recruitment.

13.4. On the satisfactory completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority prescribed in Rule 4 may confirm the member in his appointment if there is a permanent vacancy. But, if in the opinion of the appointing authority the work and conduct of the member has been unsatisfactory, the appointing authority may extend the period of probation or may even revert the member to his former post in the case of departmental promotees; provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed three years.

14. Scales of pay etc., of the service.—The grades of pay of each class of service are mentioned in Appendix to these Rules subject to their revision from time to time.

15. Discipline.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeals, the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1957 as amended from time to time.

16. Seniority of the members of the service.—The seniority of the members of the service shall be determined under rules issued in this behalf separately.

PART IV

CONFIRMATION, LEAVE, PENSION ETC.

17. Confirmation.—The confirmation of each member will depend on good reports earned by him, provided that he has passed the departmental examination as prescribed from time to time; and that there is a permanent vacancy available for him, and provided further that he fulfils the requisite qualifications for the post in which the vacancy occurs.

18. Leave and Pension.—In respect of leave, pension and other (cognate) matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the Revised Leave Rules, 1933 given in Appendix 7-A Volume-II of the Posts and Telegraphs Compilation of the Fundamental Rules and Supplementary Rules and the Pension Rules promulgated by the Government of India in Finance Ministry's Office Memorandum No. F. 3 (i) Est. (Spl)/47, dated 17-4-1950, as amended from time to time.

19. Repeals and Savings.—These rules shall supersede all the orders or rules, as issued by the Himachal Pradesh Administration or by the Chief Engineer on the subject from time to time, provided that promotion and appointments not in accordance with these rules already made shall not be set aside or affected.
